Standortagentur Tirol

Standortagentur Tirol supports provincial-based dynamic companies and renowned research facilities in their expansion and market development.

The Congress Region of Tirol provides you with the opportunity to discover the success of this dynamic economic and research environment. The highest rate of employment growth in Austria, export of almost two-thirds of industrial production and a research ratio of 3.12 per cent, which well exceeds the European Union and OECD countries average, are some pretty impressive facts to be going on with.

How do global players like Sandoz, GE Jenbach or Plansee make and shake the world's markets from Tirol? How does tirolean light get from the planlicht to Israel, and which analysis techniques do Ionicon use to assess the air quality over South Korea? How do high-tech SMEs such as Alpex take advantage of unbounded cooperation to increase their market edge? And which technologies propel start-up-base Tirol into the fast lane?

You will receive answers to all these questions and more during research tours, organised by Standortagentur Tirol. Eminent lecturers, powerful global players, surprising hidden champions and research centres equipped with the technology of tomorrow, such as in the quantum-computing sector, await and are sure to impress.

- 3.12 % research quota
- High-tech, ranging from life sciences to quantum-computing

Congress Centrum Alpbach
Conferences in a mountain village

Alpbach is unique. The impressive structural design of the Congress Centrum Alpbach blends in seamlessly with the traditional architecture of this Tirolean mountain village in the midst of the Alps. As the building is nestled into the mountainside, the unique villagescape remains completely unaffected. This green meeting destination in Alpbach lends itself perfectly to the requirements of customers seeking a very special venue.

- Green Meetings in a central location
- Attractive social programmes in the village and on the mountain in every season

Why is Alpbach unique?

Sustainable conferencing Austria's most beautiful mountain village. Alpbach owes its excellent infrastructure to its largest and most famous congress, European Forum Alpbach, which has been held annually in August for 6,000 participants from over 80 nations since 1945.

Design highlights of the bright and friendly building are the light cones, which diffuse the foyers and halls in natural light, as well as large window fronts, which offer breathtaking views of the surrounding mountains. Thanks to their modularity, simplicity and elegance, the high-quality conference rooms and foyers allow for multi-faceted event formats.
